DIVISION MEMORANDUM

No. 890 s. 2022

DRUG ABUSE PREVENTION AND CONTROL (DAPC) WEEK CELEBRATION

To: Assistant Schools Division Superintendents
Chiefs, CID and SGOD
All Public Schools District Supervisors
All Public Secondary School Heads
All Others Concerned

1. Attached is the Regional Memorandum No.0949, s. 2022 titled “Drug Abuse Prevention and Control (DAPC) Week Celebration”, which aims to promote the celebration of the Drug Abuse Prevention and Control, with the theme, “Addressing Drug Challenges in Health and Humanitarian Crises #CareInCrises”, for your information and guidance.
2. The long-week celebration promotes public awareness against the effects of drugs on sex and gender differences, as well as encourage public operation in the anti-drug campaign. Moreover, the activity also provides an avenue for the national government agencies, local government units, non-government organizations, and other concerned stakeholders to highlight their respective drug prevention activities.
3. In view of this, all secondary school heads are enjoined to lead the celebration in their respective schools. Below is the list of suggested activities that the school can organize:

Suggested Activities:

- a. Zumba after the flag raising ceremony
- b. Making/Updating of NDEP corner in the schools
- c. Posting of signage and visual aides related to Drug Prevention and Control in schools
- d. Drawing activity that focuses on the theme, “Addressing Drug Challenges in Health and Humanitarian Crises #CareInCrises”, which will be conducted by MAPEH classes
- e. Quiz Bowl
- f. Distribution of IEC materials about Drug Prevention and Control (leaflets, flyers, etc.)
