REGIONAL MEMORANDUM

No. 18 2022

CONSULTATION ON CONTEXTUALIZATION AND MONITORING AND EVALUATION MECHANISMS IN KINDERGARTEN, SPECIAL EDUCATION AND MULTIGRADE

To Schools Division Superintendents (SDSs)

All Others Concerned

1. Considering the importance of learning resources and monitoring and evaluation in the effective implementation and delivery of curriculum, this Office through the Curriculum and Learning Management Division enhanced the existing mechanism in contextualizing, monitoring and evaluating the implementation of kindergarten, SPED and multigrade curricula to suit the new normal set up. In this light, a Consultation on the Contextualization, Monitoring and Evaluation Mechanisms in Kindergarten, Special Education, and Multigrade shall be conducted on April 5-8, 2022 via MS Teams.
2. The activity aims to discuss the curriculum contextualization and monitoring and evaluation framework along with the pilot tested M & E Tools designed for blended setting, and integrate key players' suggestions and recommendations to finalize the tools for utilization in the field.
3. Participants to the activity are the selected Education Program Supervisors in Kindergarten, Division SPED and Multigrade Focal Persons, 1 Public Schools District Supervisor, and 1 Principal from the identified division as reflected in enclosure number 1. In the selection of participants particularly PSDS and school heads, having background knowledge on the area specified and currently handling a district/school offering SPED and/or Multigrade, must be considered. They are required to register through this link <https://forms.gle/8333333333333333>. Meeting link shall be sent through the participants email a day before the activity.
4. Please see enclosures for proper guidance.
5. Immediate dissemination of, and compliance with this Memorandum is directed.
