BUILDING SYNERGY FOR QUALITY SERVICE AND HIGHER
PERFORMANCE

DATE : December 5, 2022

1. The year is almost ending and again, another year will start anew. Implemented programs and projects for curriculum instruction in the Curriculum Implementation Division (CID) which are reflected in the last leg of the division development plan will be reviewed for possible modifications or enhancements to suit to the demands of time and situation to recover the learning losses. Accomplishments against the targets this year shall be reviewed and appraised for final input of rating in the individual performance commitment review form. Likewise, programs and project owners, together with the field overseers shall prepare and strategically plan out appropriate gender-responsive activities that would carry out the objectives for successful implementation in 2023, for improved services and performances.
2. Thus, this office, through the CID will conduct a strategic planning and interfacing of all the activities across areas among the Instructional Managers and other CID Personnel to carry out the newly launched recovery program intervention for literacy and numeracy, which would lead to academic success. This will also enable to pull together synergy among content and implementation managers to improve performance. This will be conducted on December 20-22, 2022, at Plaza Maria Luisa Suites Inn to be attended by the CID Division and District Supervisors/Coordinators/Caretakers/
