Sir:

I am writing to offer my wholehearted congratulations on the award of Nilita L. Ragay of MIT 2017, Rachel B. Picardal of MIT 2020, and Rosela R. Abiera of MIT 2018. On MIT's 10th anniversary, they will be conferred an Honoris Causa Profesor ad Honorem / Vitasta Ambassador Distinction by the Universite Henry Dunant, a partner institution of Saceda Youth Lead.

Since 2013, SYL has been giving awards to teachers whom we have met through our various leadership development trainings and programs. We have awarded more than 160 teachers as MITs, whose character, competence and contributions blended with strong leadership and influence, have become local models of inspiration among the many youth and teachers who found life too difficult to appreciate.

Through our international partners and links, MiTs have participated in several international conferences in the Asian region, co-led in SYL international programs in the ASEAN region and spearheaded vital projects that involved teachers, youth and the local LGUs in the Philippines. They have become models of inspiration, leadership and influence to bring in the change for the self, thus, ensuring stronger families and communities for a better and safer Philippines- the most valuable legacy of a Saceda Youth Lead experience.

We invite all awardees on August 4-6, 2022. All MITs will converge in Dumaguete as we celebrate the 10th anniversary of inspiration, empowerment and leadership. Series of lectures and workshops are scheduled to refine the MITs, and most importantly, they will be conferred with Honoris Causa.

I hope you can assist to make their participation possible. I am also extending my invitation to you, if you could come, to witness the MIT 2022 event. Congratulations for producing Most Inspiring Teachers. Thank you very much!

With gratitude,

DAVE G. SACEDA, Ph.D.
